Terms & Conditions:

1. Flights, transportation, hotels, meals and itinerary stated in the brochure are subject to change without prior notice. Any changes after booking shall be advised accordingly.
2. The sequence of itinerary, meals and hotel arrangements are subject to the final confirmation by the local ground operator.
3. Principally tour commentary will be conducted in Mandarin speaking. However, others languages can be arranged on request basis with surcharge.
4. Due to seasonal change in temperature and weather, most hotels and restaurants have a central control system to regulate the indoor temperature for the comfort of the tour members and the system cannot be adjusted by the tour members.
5. Triple room or extra bed shall be in the form of a roll-in bed or mattress. The room type and category allocated shall depend on the hotel's room availability and arrangement, and is not predetermined by the Company.
6. Purchase of travel insurance is highly advisable. The Company shall not be liable for any losses or personal expenses incurred by the tour members during the tour. Please refer to the insurance policy for the terms of coverage.
7. In the event of adverse weather conditions and/or natural disasters which may lead to traffic delays, extended stays in hotel, cancellation/rescheduling of flights, and/or any other losses, the onus is on the tour members to bear the expenses.
8. Due to adverse weather conditions, traffic congestion, and other unforeseen circumstances, the Company reserves the right to rearrange, change or abandon the tour itinerary without prior notice and there shall not be any reimbursement.
9. Most hotels in Korea do not provide porter services. However, large tour groups shall be accompanied by a junior photographer to provide photography services. The photographs shall be sold before the tour ends at 5000 won/pc (approx. SGD6/pc) to tour members who are interested to purchase. However, there is no obligation to purchase the products sold.
10. All tour members are required to visit the specified COMPULSORY SHOPPING STOPS (minimum 1 hour). However, there is no obligation to purchase the products sold. The Company reserves the right to collect a penalty of SGD300 per person, should tour members refuse to visit the shops or choose to abandon the tour group.

2	Incheon - Jeongseon	(_/L/D)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gwangmyeong Cave - The cave was used when Korea was under Japanese rule from 1910 to 1945 for mining purposes and was staffed by forced laborers. The cave complex re-opened in 2011 for tourism purposes and now has historical exhibits, but is chiefly entertainment-focused, with aquariums, sculptures, light shows, children's amusements, and other attractions, including an underground winery. • Korean Folk Village [INC: Traditional Village + Amusement Village Free pass] – introduces traditional culture from the late Joseon period to both local and international visitors through cultural classes experience, shaman faith, seasonal customs and others.
3	Jeongseon - Pyeongchang	(B/L/_)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Samcheok Ocean Rail Bike [4Pax per cart] - is Korea's one and only ocean railbike facility that offers a landscape view of black pines and bizarre rocks merged together. Its double-tracked route of 5.4km follows the beautiful shoreline of the East Sea with a tunnel along its way that entertains bikers with fascinating luminarie and laser shows, giving feelings as if it is passing through a mysterious underwater tunnel. • Chooam Candle Stick Rock - The rock formation has been around for hundreds of years. A famous sunrise festival is held here each year. Many people try to capture a photo of the sun rising off the horizon and match it with the rock formation so it looks like a candle. • Gangneung Unification Park - It's composed of a Unification Security Pavilion that is a ship-shaped pavilion with display facilities and a Warship Pavilion. The land for the Warship Pavilion was reclaimed from the sea to provide the location for a captured North Korean submarine and decommissioned naval warship. • Gangneung Central Market - The market is divided into two main parts; one is a traditional market and the other is an underground fishery market. The second floor has a restaurant and coffee shops. Vendors display their products along the street, providing a typical scene of a traditional market and an opportunity to learn about the life of people in Gangneung.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hot Place Museum - is a new concept of interactive zones that creates new values in one place through the convergence of art and technology. It is located in Garosu-gil, Gangnam, a representative street of Seoul. • Sinsadong Garosugil - The street (also known as 'artists' street') has an eccentric flair thanks to its variety of charmingly decorated coffee shops, and designer stores. Garosu-gil is particularly popular in autumn when the golden ginkgo leaves begin to fall. • Starfield Library – Located in the middle of COEX Central Plaza, Starfield Library offers visitors a perfect reading space. Two-floored library has 13-meter high bookshelf and soft lights to ease the eyes as well as various types of tables with electric plugs for those with laptops. With more than 50,000 books ranging from literature to hobbies as well as over 400 types of magazines, visitors can enjoy reading interesting books in the middle of a shopping center. • Ikseon-dong Hanok Village - Ikseon-dong's Hanok Village was first established in the 1920s, and with the passing of time, modernism caught up with tradition to create the unique atmosphere found here today. Despite its recent popularity as a tourist attraction, the village is still a lived-in neighborhood, home to many residents. • Dongdaemun Market - Head over for Dongdaemun Market, one of the most popular wholesale shopping areas in Seoul among Koreans and tourists alike.
